The index map does not define the extent of the land in any registered title. This reflects the fact that the boundary of a registered estate as shown for the purposes of the register is a general boundary, unless shown as determined under section 60 of the Land Registration Act 2002. You might also wish to refer to the individual register and title plan of any adjoining titles for details of the surrounding registered estates and their general boundaries and/or determined boundaries.

The plan lodged with your application for a search of the index map has been accepted for this application. Any statement of disclaimer has been disregarded as it is assumed that it was not intended to apply for the purposes of the application.

Please note that the acceptance of the plan for this particular application does not necessarily mean that the same plan would be accepted if subsequently used for another application. All plans lodged with a Land Registry application should comply with the guidelines in Land Registry's Practice Guide 40, Supplement 2. Lodging a plan which does not comply with the guidelines may result in requisitions being raised, (such as a request to delete a statement of disclaimer) or the application being cancelled.
